OUR IMPACT STORIES

CLP has been a transformative experience. It has been challenging, yet deeply rewarding. It sharpened my leadership skills, revealed my resilience, and connected me with brilliant minds and lasting relationships. I am truly grateful.

FROM THE HELM

On June 7th, 2025, we said goodbye to CLP Crystal Cohort 1 and CLP Gold Cohort 6 and welcomed CLP Gold Cohort 7! It was an amazing Induction and Graduation Ceremony! Kindly follow the links to enjoy the sights and sounds.

It was heartwarming to have donors and partners (see page 32) who were willing to support the event. Please consider joining our support group as a donor (in cash or kind), mentor, guest speaker, or prayer warrior! Register your interest by clicking this link. As usual, we have stories of how our fellows are being the change they want to see! Enjoy.

COHORT 6 GRAND FINALE CAMP EXPERIENCE

Held from 29 April to 3 May 2025 at Camp Elim, North Legon, the final camp offered Cohort 6 an intensive wrap-up of all six CLP pillars through reflection, training, and peer engagement.

At ICGC Christ Temple East, Pastor Mensa Otabil challenged Fellows to lead with precision and intentionality.

The Giving Hands Project CLP Crystal Cohort 1

The team donated essential clothing and supplies to Potter's Village Home in Dodowa. The visit included a guided tour, engagement with the children, and insights into a planned girls' dormitory project.

Special appreciation to their mentor, Dickson Kove (BoE, Gold Cohort 3), for his support!

BEACONS OF EXCELLENCE: STORIES OF REAL-WORLD IMPACT.

TPMxEducation, founded by Deladem Kofi Fiakye (BoE, Gold 6), equips young Africans with coding skills. The initiative has trained over 30 students, held its first in-person workshop, and launched a 1,000-laptop campaign for under-resourced schools, with support from partners like Eden Tree Ltd. Benedicta Adwoa Hayford, BoE of Gold Cohort 6 and President of the RTC Foundation, led a high-impact blood donation drive that united strategic partners and community members. Her commitment to healthcare advocacy reflects exemplary leadership, service, and lasting impact.

Key Highlights:

- Partners: KATH Blood Bank & KNUST Medical Students Association
- Outcome: 102 units of whole blood collected

THE BEACONS PODCAST: VOICES THAT INSPIRE

The Beacons Leadership Podcast has officially launched, delivering Christ-centered conversations on leadership, governance, and personal development from an African perspective.

Each episode features expert insights, real-life case studies, and inspiring stories. The first episode is now live, with new content released monthly.

Keron Achiaa Yeboah

“I was once the quiet girl who hesitated to speak up or take initiative, held back by fear of failure. Through CLP, I’ve learned to lead with courage and embrace the gifts God has given me to make a meaningful impact.”

Since joining the CLP, I have grown spiritually, mentally, and emotionally, gaining clarity in purpose and boldness in service. CLP has equipped me with the values, vision, and voice to lead with integrity across Ghana, Africa, and beyond.

Samuel Bright Appiah

Nana Esi Fynnba Acquah-Harrison

“When people ask why I joined CLP, I say it was to leave my comfort zone. Now I don’t even know where that zone is. From blogs to podcasts to webinars, the growth has been unreal. Thank you, CLP!”
